Congratulations!

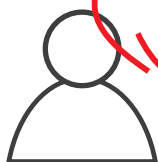

Now you can choose any one of your stories' privacy preference sets to use for yourself, or you can create your own. This will automatically generate a personal privacy policy for you, which you can then use to easily communicate your privacy preferences when using any online service.

no, thanks

My Personal Privacy Policy

- Never store or share my credit card information
- Always ask me before tracking or otherwise using my location
- Always inform me when third-party tracking occurs
- Never store or share my social insurance number
- Never share my contacts between services

Additional options:

- Where possible, inform me when a service does not match my privacy policy
- Where possible, let me know why and how a service is using my personal information
